Definitions:

Buddy sort-Partner reads the word to you while you write the words in categories, in your notebook. You try to do this correctly without looking at the words.

Speed sort-you and your buddy race to sort your words correctly, in the quickest amount of time. Must 'say' word as you are sorting the word.

Blind Sort-Partner reads the word to you and without seeing the word, you tell your partner which category to place the word.

Word Hunt-Look for words with your spelling pattern in the books you read. Write the words in categories, in your notebook. If you cannot find any words with the pattern, think of other words you know that have that pattern.

Write Sort- First sort the words into categories. Write the words in categories in your notebook.
